The score includes several measures with rests, indicating where the piccolo player should not play. The notation is complex, with many beamed notes and slurs, suggesting a fast and technically demanding piece. The key signature is one flat (Bb), and the time signature is 4/4. The score is divided into measures by bar lines, with some measures containing multiple notes beamed together. The overall structure of the score is a single melodic line for the piccolo, with various dynamics and articulations throughout.
